

TEXAS HISTORY ALIVE!

Saturday, April 2, 2011

Noon – 5:00 pm (Rain or Shine)

DESCRIPTION: The 2011 Texas History Alive! is presented by Texana Living History Association and the A.W. Perry Homestead Museum. This will be a Girl Scout only event (not open to public) and pre-registration is required. This is a great opportunity for learning about Texas history in a fun environment with lots of hands-on experiences. Texas history will truly come alive right before your eyes. You will see an 1870's chuckwagon where you will be able to visit with Smokey (the cook) or the fur-trapper with his pelts. You will also see a pioneer-style tent where costumed volunteers will be demonstrating pioneer life skills such as spinning and weaving. You may help with chores such as the laundry (wash board and lye soap), butter churning and corn grinding or play with the pioneer toys. There will be presentations by historical figures like Sam Houston, Molly Goodnight or Susanna Dickenson. Docents will be available for tours of A. W. Perry Homestead, a beautifully restored turn of the 20th century farmhouse. Make-and-take crafts will be available. All levels of Girl Scouts are invited. All girls registered by March 18th will receive an event patch. A badge-link sheet will be provided at the event. Volunteer opportunities are available.

WHO: Girl Scouts of all ages (Daisies – Ambassadors)

TIME: noon – 5:00 pm. This is a come-and-go event however, not all activities will be available all day. You will need the full time to participate in all of the activities.
