

Texas History Alive! Playing The Past

Saturday, April 13, 2013
Noon – 5:00 pm (Rain or Shine)

DESCRIPTION: The 2013 Texas History Alive! is presented by Texana Living History Association and the A.W. Perry Homestead Museum. This is a great opportunity for learning about Texas history in a fun environment with lots of hands-on experiences. Texas history will truly come alive right before your eyes. You will see an 1870's chuckwagon where you will be able to visit with Smokey (the cook) or the fur-trapper with his pelts. See costumed volunteers demonstrating life skills such as lace making, spinning and weaving. You may help with chores such as the laundry (wash board and lye soap), butter churning and corn grinding or play with the pioneer toys. There will be presentations by historical figures like Sam Houston, Molly Goodnight, DeLiens Rose or Susanna Dickenson. Docents will be available for tours of A. W. Perry Homestead, a beautifully restored turn of the 20th century farmhouse. Make-and-take crafts will be available. This is a family event. All levels of Girl Scouts are invited to complete activities toward badges with a focus on It's Your Story. A badge-link sheet will be provided at the event. All girls registered by March 15th will receive an event patch. Volunteer opportunities are available.

WHO: Everyone. Lots of hands-on and make-and-take for children of all ages. This is a great family event. (Special opportunities for Girl Scouts to complete badge work.)

TIME: noon – 5:00 pm. This is a come-and-go event however, not all activities will be available all day. You will need the full time to participate in all of the activities.
